HOME INSPECTIONS:

A professional home inspection, while not a guarantee of the condition of a property, is a professional opinion rendered by someone trained and qualified to detect signs of defects and/or deficiencies that the layperson may not see. We strongly recommend that you obtain a general inspection as well as specialized inspections (pool, roof, seawall, etc.) beyond a general scope if recommended by the general inspector or if you have personal concerns about such items.

The choice of inspector(s) is yours. We will gladly provide you with names and numbers of qualified local inspectors, but we encourage you to check the references of those you are considering using. By signing below, you agree to indemnify and hold harmless ALVA International, Inc. and its agents from any and all liabilities that may arise out of your selection. It is understood that neither ALVA International, Inc. nor its agents are receiving any fees or remuneration for these referrals.

HOME WARRANTY:

As a home buyer, you may wish to have a Home Warranty plan which covers certain home systems and appliances. Buyer(s) acknowledge that their ALVA International, Inc. agent has provided information about acquiring a Home Warranty. If none is provided by the Seller or purchased by Buyer(s), Buyer(s) agree to hold harmless ALVA International, Inc. and its agents against any liability resulting from failure of systems and appliances that would have been covered by a Home Warranty plan. We also acknowledge that ALVA International, Inc. may receive an administrative fee from home warranty providers.

PROPERTY TAX INFORMATION:

Due to the changing values of properties and the effect of the Save-Our-Homes cap, your property taxes may not be the same as on the date of your contract. Please check with the County Tax Appraiser's office for any changes in your property taxes. ALVA International, Inc. and its agents are not responsible for any tax information before or after the purchase of your property.
